

Quality Assurance Statement

Dear Dealers and Business Partners:

Fujipla Inc. is confident of and responsible for its products and offers assurance of quality of its products under a comprehensive after-sales service system.

Fujipla Inc. now announces the building and implementation of FG-QMS, a new Fujipla Group Quality Assurance System

The FG-QMS will be implemented by all Fujipla Group companies. The certification and accreditation for all Fujipla Group companies will be made by Fujipla Inc., based upon the specific know-how regarding the products, the manufacturing process and the corresponding quality management.

This is a further step in Fujipla's quality policy to continuously provide its customers with stable supplies of unique, high-quality products at appropriate market prices.
